Map Description

This map shows the location and extent of surface coal mines in Sullivan County, Indiana. The information is based on data collected by the Indiana Geological Survey (IGS) and the United States Geological Survey (USGS). The map is derived from the 1:62,500 scale quadrangle topographic maps and the 2000 TIGER line files. The data were digitized and transformed using software developed by the Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) and the University of Indiana.
