- Type of eruption/magma
- Volcano type
- Recent eruption events
- Date of last event
- Hazards
- Height
- Mythology/ namesake associated with volcano
- Location

Typed Report Requirements:

The final report is due on _____________________

Specific formatting requirements follow:
- 2–3 pages typed*
- One-inch margins
- Double-spaced
- 12 pt font in Times New Roman, Garamond, or Veranda

Cases of plagiarism will be handled in accordance with school rules. Yes, it is still plagiarism if you change a few words in a sentence. To avoid this issue, read your source, close it, and then write that information as if you were explaining it to your friend.

*Note – The length of the paper does not include the title page, bibliography, or appendices.

Be sure to incorporate all the information that you collect accurately. Your title page should include the title of the paper, byline, name, date and class. On a third page, cite the sources that you use to research your volcano and attach it to your report.

Additional requirements:
- Use correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation.
- Communicate information collected clearly.
- Inform audience about the information you collected on your volcano.
